

I am shocked that Sinclair is forcing it's affiliates to air a clearly anti-Kerry program and trying to pass it off as balance "journalism."

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Seeing that they can get away with this shows why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you for your attention to my letter.

Sincerely,

Michele Moreno
